Diners

- Wednesday, 11 March 2008 8:00 pm : Le Procope 13 rue de l'Ancienne Comédie 75006 Paris - Subway: Odéon - line 4 or 10 (www.procope.com)

The oldest café in Paris...This prestigious place, founded in 1686 by Francesco Procopio dei Coltelli, welcomed such famous patrons as Voltaire, Danton, Robespierre, Molière, Diderot and Benjamin Franklin. The restaurant, which is steeped in history and has a decor largely inspired by the great Parisian events that took place there, will undoubtedly entice you.

- Thursday, 12 March 2008 8:00 pm: Les éditeurs 4, carrefour de l'odéon 75006 Paris - Subway: Odéon - line 4 or 10 (www.lesediteurs.fr)

Difficult to define in a word "Les éditeurs".. It is both a café, restaurant, bar and lounge, a tearoom, a library ... or 200 seats on two levels at the crossroads of the Odeon and Saint Germain des Prés. The books across all shelves (more than 5,000 offered by publishing houses) are addressed, laminated, read ... You will find here the spirit Germanopratin ...
